Regarding certain media reports

Tokyo, August 22, 2017 - Today, the Nihon Keizai Shimbun (Nikkei) published a report concerning the sale of Fujitsu's mobile phone business. This report was not based on any official announcement made by Fujitsu.

In February 2016, Fujitsu split off its mobile phone business, and is currently considering various possibilities, including business alliances with other companies. However, it has not yet made a decision. Fujitsu will promptly announce matters that require disclosure as they arise.
