

Regarding Certain Media Reports

Tokyo, October 31, 2017 - Today, the Nihon Keizai Shimbun (Nikkei) published a report concerning Fujitsu's PC business. This report was not based on any official announcement made by Fujitsu.

In February 2016 Fujitsu split off its PC business, and has been exploring a strategic cooperation in the PC business with Lenovo. However, Fujitsu has not yet reached an agreement with regard to entering into a contract. Negotiations toward entering into a contract as soon as possible remain ongoing. Fujitsu will promptly announce matters that require disclosure as they arise.
