<New Appointment> Kenichiro Sasae (Independent Director of the Company and President of the Japan Institute of International Affairs)

Regarding the Executive Nomination Committee and Compensation Committee:

In October 2009, the Company established the Executive Nomination Committee and the Compensation Committee as advisory bodies for its Board of Directors to ensure the transparency and objectivity of its process for nominating Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and its process for determining executive compensation. The committees also ensure the fairness of the method and level of executive compensation.

The Executive Nomination Committee deliberates about candidates for Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member positions in accordance with the Framework of Corporate Governance Structure and the Procedures and Policy of Directors and Auditors Nomination/Dismissal stipulated in the Company's Corporate Governance Policy and provides its recommendations to the Board of Directors.

In addition, the Compensation Committee provides its recommendations about the level of base compensation and the method for calculating performance-based compensation to the Board of Directors in accordance with the Procedures and Policy of Determining Directors and Auditors Compensation stipulated in the Company's Corporate Governance Policy. Further, compensation for each Director is determined by the Representative Director and CEO subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee.
