

Notice of Agreements for the Mergers through Absorption (Simplified Absorption-type Merger) of Consolidated Subsidiaries of Fujitsu Limited

Tokyo, July 29, 2021 — Fujitsu Limited (herein after referred to as “Fujitsu”) announced today that it has made a resolution at its board of directors meeting held today that effective October 1, 2021, its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively referred to herein as “the Target Companies”), FUJITSU KANSAI-CHUBU NET-TECH LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as “KCN”), FUJITSU KYUSHU NETWORK TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as “QNET”), FUJITSU COMPUTER TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as “FCT”) will merge with Fujitsu and it has concluded agreements for absorption type mergers with the Target Companies.

Because Fujitsu’s mergers with KCN (Merger 1), QNET (Merger 2) , FCT (Merger 3) are absorption-type mergers of consolidated subsidiaries, certain disclosure items and details have been omitted from this notice (Merger 1, Merger 2 and Merger 3 are collectively referred to herein as “the Mergers”).

1. Purpose of the Mergers

Fujitsu has been promoting the streamlining of the formation of its operations including domestic group companies with the aim of enhancing the value delivered to customers with the expansion of its Digital Transformation (DX) business.

As part of this effort, KCN and QNET, which develop network systems, and FCT, which develops embedded systems for products such as supercomputers, servers, and storage products, will be absorbed by Fujitsu through the Mergers.

With the Mergers, the high-tech development capabilities that were dispersed throughout the Target Companies will be integrated and the consolidation of development functions will allow for the realization of a new organizational structure that enables Fujitsu to further increase productivity. Additionally, Fujitsu aims to further bolster its ability to respond to the various needs of the market, maintain and acquire leading-edge technology that is consistently one step ahead of the industry, improve the value provided to our customers and enhance competitiveness. With regard to existing business fields, Fujitsu will strive to maintain and improve the efficiency of its technologies for long-term, stable business continuity, and by providing systems development and platforms that support services for solving social challenges and enriching people’s lives, Fujitsu will contribute to our customers’ business stability.

2. Summary of the Mergers

(1) Schedule of the Mergers

Because the Mergers meet the requirements of simplified absorption-type mergers, Fujitsu will carry it out without the approval of a resolution at the Shareholders’ Meeting.

Date of resolution by Board of Directors:	July 29, 2021 (today)
Date agreement for the Mergers was concluded:	July 29, 2021 (today)
Effective date of the Mergers:	October 1, 2021 (scheduled)

(2) Method of the Mergers

The mergers will be conducted through an absorption-type mergers method in which Fujitsu will be the surviving company and the Target Companies will be dissolved as the absorbed companies.

(3) Allocation of Consideration for the Mergers

No shares will be issued or consideration paid in conjunction with the Mergers.

(4) Treatment of Share Subscription Rights and Bonds with Share Subscription Rights

The Target Companies have not issued share subscription rights or bonds with share subscription rights.
